

A detailed topographic map of the state of Alabama, showing its characteristic mountainous terrain with numerous ridges and valleys. The map is rendered in black lines on a white background, with contour lines indicating elevation. The state's outline is clearly defined, including the panhandle in the northwest and the Gulf of Mexico coastline in the south.

Part I:
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATIONS